

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

CHINESE STUDENTS' ALLIANCE OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

PREFACE

The purpose of publishing this "Who's Who of the Chinese Students in America" is to bring about a better understanding and appreciation of one another among the members of the Chinese Students' Alliance, and also to provide a reliable book of reference about their status for the people at home.

The work was very well started by the former secretary of the Alliance, Mr. C. C. Lin, through whose good offices practically all the necessary material and data have been collected. It is very much to be regretted that his unexpected resignation from the secretaryship has greatly delayed the appearance of the book.

Mr. H. C. Tung, the present secretary, has cheerfully consented to undertake the completion of this laborious task. Whatever credit is to be ascribed for this book belongs to him and his faithful co-workers.

This little volume is the beginning of a series of such publications to appear from time to time in later years. In this first book will be found many defects and imperfections, due to the circumstances under which it was prepared, but in spite of them it is my feeling that the labor and money spent upon it will not have been spent in vain if the work shall prove useful to our members in the United States and to the folks at home.

MING HENG CHOU,

President of the Chinese Students' Alliance in the United States of America.

City Y. M. C. A., Madison, Wisconsin.

EDITOR'S PREFACE

Seeing that correct and detailed information about the Chinese Students in the different schools, colleges and universities in the United States will facilitate better understanding and communication among themselves, and will enable leaders of affairs, both here and in China, to locate the students who are best trained for service in different important undertakings that will be promoted from time to time, the Chinese Students' Alliance in the United States of America has undertaken the publication of the "Who's Who of the Chinese Students in America."

This publication is modeled after the well-known annual "Who's Who in America." It aims to present a biographical sketch of the Chinese students in this country—their nativity, age, education (general as well as specific) and their professional or technical experience. It is the first attempt of the Chinese Students' Alliance at anything so comprehensive, and is to take the place of the "Chinese Students' Directory," which gives but little information about the students and has been found very unsatisfactory in comparison with what this new publication aims to be.

Secretary's office - 9-7-1923

The material from which this work has been compiled is taken from questionnaires filled out by our fellow-students in the different universities and colleges, through the co-operation of the officers of the local Chinese Students' Clubs. Most of the material is new, but some of it is taken from questionnaires filled out during the preceding administration of the Alliance, under the direction of the ex-secretary, Mr. C. C. Lin, now chairman of the Eastern Section of the Alliance. It is to be regretted that some of the material is not strictly up to date, but it was found impractical to collect it all anew without unduly postponing the date of publication. The editor can only hope that he will have the forgiveness of his fellow-students and others for the book's imperfections.

The editor has endeavored to make the information herein published as complete and accurate, and as useful as possible. But much of the information, including many home addresses, came written in Chinese, which has been found difficult to translate so as to be understood by other people. Some of this information has had to be omitted entirely.

A work of this character, in the hands of an editor without previous experience of this kind, cannot be free from errors and inconsistencies. Those who will kindly call attention to such defects will greatly help to make the next issue more satisfactory.

The editor is indebted to Mr. C. C. Lin, ex-secretary of the Alliance, for the preliminary work he did in the preparation of the questionnaires and in the collection of much of the data in this book; to the chairmen and also to the secretaries of the local clubs, through whose co-operation and assistance the questionnaires were properly filled out and promptly forwarded. And particularly hearty gratitude and deep appreciation must be expressed to K. S. Hor, C. H. Chao, M. C. Shen and S. T. Chen, associates of the editor, who have faithfully co-operated in many ways and have helped to read and correct the proof sheets.

Finally, due acknowledgement must be given to those advertisers who have recognized in this work a medium for reaching the Chinese student body in this country, thus establishing important connections for themselves while enabling us to reduce the cost to the Alliance of publishing the book.

CONSTITUTION OF THE CHINESE STUDENTS' ALLIANCE IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Note—This Constitution was revised May 20, 1920, by the Constitutional Amendment Committee, consisting of M. J. Bau (chairman), F. C. Lin, and Albert Ding; and ex-officio members M. H. Chou, president of the Alliance, and C. P. Chow, S. K. Wei and S.M.Chang, sectional chairmen. It was approved by the General Council and ratified by the members at Sectional Conferences, and is effective on and after September 6, 1920.

Article I—Name and Definition.

Section 1. The name of this organization shall be "The Chinese Students' Alliance in the United States of America".

Section 2. By "Chinese Students" are meant persons who are Chinese by birth, descent, naturalization or marriage, according to the nationality of China, and who are students enrolled in universities, colleges, academies, high schools and other educational institutions of secondary rank, or who are engaged in practical training. By "the United States of America" is meant the continental territory of the States, excluding Alaska.

Article II—Objects

Section 3. The objects of the Alliance shall be:

(a) To labor for the general welfare of China, both at home and abroad, and

(b) To promote the common interests of the Chinese students in the United States of America.

Article III—Division into Sections.

Section 4. In order to satisfy more adequately local conditions and needs, the Alliance shall be divided into sections—the Eastern Section, the Mid-Western Section and the Western Section.

Section 5. These sections shall have the power and duty:

(a) To elect sectional officers;

(b) To elect active members;

(c) To hold annual conferences; and

(d) To make laws governing their individual activities and interests not conflicting with the constitution and by-laws of the Alliance.

Section 6. This constitution shall be supreme throughout the Alliance, anything in the constitution of the sections to the contrary notwithstanding. And the power to act in all matters affecting the welfare of the whole Chinese student body in the United States of America shall reside in the Alliance and not in the sections.

Article IV—Membership

Section 7. The Alliance shall have five kinds of membership, namely, active, associate, honorary, alumnus, and life.

Section 8. (a) Any Chinese student in the United States of America, who possesses a sound mind and a good character, may be elected to active membership by the proper sectional authorities.

Only those members who have been duly elected to active membership and who have paid their annual dues shall be active members and only such members shall have the right to vote and be eligible for alliance or sectional offices.

(b) Any person, except a Chinese student in the United States, who manifests any interest in the alliance and who possesses a sound mind and a good character, may be elected to associate membership by the General Council. Applications for associate membership shall be sent to the Alliance Secretary.

(c) Any person who has rendered distinguished service to China or to the Alliance, and whom the Alliance wishes to honor, may be elected to honorary membership by the General Council.

(d) Any member upon departure from the United States of America becomes an alumnus member. He shall have the same rights and duties of the active members except the right to vote and to hold office.

(e) Any member may become a life member upon the payment of a life fee of fifty dollars ($50.00), or the equivalent in the foreign currency.

Section 9. The transfer of active members from one section to another shall not affect their status in the Alliance.

Section 10. Resignation from active membership shall be sent to the proper sectional authorities; from honorary and associate membership to the Alliance Secretary. No resignation from active and associate membership may be accepted as such, unless the member resigning has fully discharged his obligations to the Alliance.

Section 11. Any member who violates the constitution of the Alliance or any of its sections or who commits an act of misconduct, after due investigation and conviction by the respective authority who has charge of resignation of members, shall be deprived of his membership.

Article V—Officers.

Section 12. The Alliance shall have a General Council composed of the Councilmen elected by the several sections, with the following as ex-officio members: the executive officers of the Alliance, the Chairmen of the sections, the Chief Editors and Managers of the Chinese Students' Monthly and the Chinese Students' Quarterly, and the Chairmen of all the local clubs of the Chinese Students' Alliance. For at least 15 active members a section shall delegate one Councilman, and for every additional 30 above the first 15 another. Any vacancy in the General Council caused by absence, resignation, and any other disability, shall be filled by the proper sectional authorities.

Section 13. The General Council shall have the power:

- (a) To initiate constitutional amendments and by-laws;
- (b) To interpret the constitution;
- (c) To make all necessary and proper laws to carry out the objects of the Alliance;
- (d) To elect honorary and associate members;
- (e) To raise revenues;
- (f)—To vote appropriations from the reserve fund; and
- (g) To impeach the Alliance officers for the neglect of duties and the violation of the constitution and other laws.

Section 14. For revenue and appropriation measures and the election of honorary members, a two-thirds majority vote shall be required. For the impeachment of the Alliance officers, a three-fourths vote shall be required. For all other measures, a simple majority shall suffice.

Section 15. In the event of urgent needs or ultimate deficits the General Council shall levy pro rata assessments on and to be paid by the members of the Alliance.

Section 16. The Alliance shall have an Executive Council composed of President, a Vice President, a Secretary, a Treasurer and Chairmen of the Sections. If possible they shall meet at least once a year. The President shall call the meeting and determine the time and place of the conference.

The Editor-in-chief and the Manager-in-chief of the Chinese Students' Monthly and the Chinese Students' Quarterly may attend the meeting of the Executive Council when their interests are involved.

The Executive Council shall pass the budget and determine the general policies of the Alliance.

Any vacancy in the Executive office of the Alliance shall be filled by the Executive Council with the approval of the General Council.

Section 17. The President and other officers of the Alliance shall be nominated and elected by the outgoing General Council. The election of the new President and other officers shall be published in the June issue of the Chinese Students' Monthly. And the new officers shall assume office on July 1st.

Section 18. The election procedure shall be as follows: The President shall appoint an Election Committee consisting of members chosen outside of the General Council. This short historical account unmistakably points to the wonderful development of the Alliance and the great organizing genius of its founders. Through the untiring efforts of our eminent predecessors, Dr. C. C. Wang, Dr. Wellington V. K. Koo, Dr. C. T. Wang, Mr. David Yui, and others, the organization has become a most powerful and useful one among the Chinese Students in the United States at present. Their worthy example in the past should give inspiration to the present officers and members to carry on the work which they have nobly started.

THE PROGRESS OF THE ALLIANCE PUBLICATIONS

1. 1904—"The Dragon Student"—the first annual (in Chinese) published by the Ithaca Chinese Students' Alliance.
2. 1905—"The Dragon Student," the second annual, in both Chinese and English, published by the Chinese Students' Alliance of the Eastern States.
3. 1907—"The Chinese Students' Monthly," published under the editorship of Dr. Wellington V. K. Koo, and continued in the succeeding years without interruption.
"The Chinese Students' Annual," published under the direction of Miss P. H. Hu.
4. 1911—"Chinese Students' Directory of the Eastern Alliance."
5. 1912—First "Chinese Students' Directory" of the whole Alliance, published in the "Monthly".
6. 1913—Second "Chinese Students' Directory," published by the secretary of the Alliance.

Within the short space of fourteen years, the "Monthly" has undergone great progress. With several hundred copies at the beginning, now its edition has been swelled to several thousands circulated throughout the world and patronized by the thinking Chinese and Americans. The same thing holds true with the "Quarterly." "Who's Who" is entirely a novel feature this year and will prove a very valuable reference book for both the members and the people at home.
